Sound Celebration

Saturday 26th October
Colbury Memorial Hall
7.30pm

A Concert to raise funds for Tools for Self Reliance.

Tools for Self Reliance gives people a chance they never had

The skills and tools to get them out of poverty and into work.

Each year we ship tens of thousands of high-quality refurbished tools and sewing machines to our partners in

Tanzania, Uganda, Ghana Zambia, Sierra Leone and Malawi,

We pay for much-needed skills training.

Our work in Africa is one half of the story.
The other half is our UK programme that supports it,
at the heart of which are our volunteers.

We provide volunteering opportunities to people of all
Abilities and from all walks of life and the personal benefits to them can be diverse and far reaching.

We are the Champions – Finale

Barry Sager who plays drums for “Young Once” initiated this fund raising concert. Barry expresses his sincere and heartfelt thanks to all those who have contributed for free to make this event happen.

Ocean Harmony

A men's a cappella singing group. Currently under the musical directorship of Mike Beven the chorus have competed successfully at national Barbershop conventions and Music festivals.

The chorus welcome new recruits and are currently running a Learn to sing course. If you like to sing, and are free for a couple of hours on a Wednesday evening, now is the time to join as it has only recently started. Ring 02380 815305 to reserve your free place.

Final Score,

Josh Ramsaywack and Tyler Bloor, both aged 15, have known each other since preschool. They first sung together as a duo in a talent show in their junior school at the age of 10.

These two lads who hail from Milford came first in the 2013 New Forest Got Talent competition winning a significant cash prize. Tyler's is the vocalist accompanied by Josh who plays guitar and provide the vocal harmonies.

Blue Sky.

Blue Sky is a natural voice community choir based in Southampton. They sing a range of songs including world music, popular songs, gospel and folk all sung with energy in glorious unaccompanied harmony.

They perform for charity and community events but there's no pressure to perform if you prefer just to come along and enjoy singing songs.

They are always open to new members and meet on Thursday evenings. Feel free to join them for a free taster session.

Rose Gosney.

Seven year old Rose is an exceptionally gifted violinist. She recently won the under twelve string solo section at Bournemouth Music festival resulting in being handpicked to perform at the Bournemouth Pavilion. She is a member of Southampton Youth strings and has recently been awarded a grant from Hampshire County Council in order to further her remarkable talent.

John Yapp and Paul Wastell.

John and Paul are a very talented duo who performs dance routines based on comedy sketches. They sing with Ocean Harmony and frequently perform their sketches at Ocean Harmony shows.

Drastic Measures

Dave Barber : Bass, Paul Keeping : Baritone, Joe Hayward : Lead, and Jason Foxwell : Tenor are Ocean Harmony members who sing in Quartet. They recently competed in the Quartet section at Bournemouth Music festival and acquitted themselves with flying colours.

Young Once

A Ukulele Sing-along Ensemble, their main objective being to provide a programme of audience participation songs along with a mixture of individual solo performances.

They play for free to community groups and care homes in and around the area. They rehearse every two weeks on a Wednesday afternoon at Colbury Hall..
